March Of The Kings Lyrics. Three great kings I met at early morn. With all their retinue were slowly marching. Three great kings I met at early morn. Were on their way to meet the newly born. With gifts of gold brought from far away. And valiant warriors to guard the royal treasure.

March Of The Kings Lyrics - Christmas Carols

In March of the Kings, the melody has an undeniably martial manner, hardly coming across as the theme to a Christmas carol. With its march-like gait and rousing sense of determination, it seems better matched to the militaristic side of the original version than to the softer language of the second rendition.

John Philip Sousa was an American composer and conductor of the late Romantic era known primarily for American military marches. He is known as "The March King" or the "American March King", to distinguish him from his British counterpart Kenneth J. Alford who is also known as "The March King". Among his best-known marches are "The Stars and Stripes Forever", "Semper Fidelis", "The Liberty Bell", "The Thunderer", and "The Washington Post". Sousa began his career playing violin and studying music
